Deadline for Applications for Community Grants from the Felix E. Martin, Jr. Foundation

Louisville, KY (February 18, 2010) – The deadline to submit an application for a grant from the Felix E. Martin, Jr. Foundation is Monday March 1, 2010.

A total of $500,000 is available for awards in this open grants application period to achieve Mr. Martin's vision of serving the educational, civic and cultural needs of the Muhlenberg County.

Grants are made to not-for-profit organizations for the benefit of the residents of Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. Applicants must be either: 1) recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501©3 charitable organization; 2) a church; 3) a school; or 4) a unit of government serving Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. Grants of any amount up to $50,000 will be considered. There is no minimum grant amount. However, the maximum grant awarded will be $50,000. Any applications requesting more than $50,000 will not be considered for a Community Grant award.

Grant applications must be received or postmarked by no later than Monday, March 1, 2010. Incomplete or late applications will not be accepted. The Foundation will evaluate all applications, select those that will receive an award and announce grant recipients in June. All applications must directly benefit Muhlenberg County.

Applications can be downloaded in a PDF format from the "Applying for a Grant" page on the Foundation's website, www.felixmartinfoundation.org/grantsApplication.aspx. Alternatively, you can call the Foundation's Program Officer, Lindsey Ransdell, at (270) 977-9194 and an application will be sent to you by U. S. Mail.

To learn more about the Foundation, visit www.FelixMartinFoundation.org or call the Foundation at (270) 977-9194 (a local call from Muhlenberg County).
