Felix E. Martin, Jr. Foundation now accepting applications for 2011 Community Grant Awards

Louisville, KY (December 10, 2010) – The application to apply for a 2011 Community Grant from the Felix E. Martin, Jr. Foundation is now available on the Foundation’s website, www.felixmartinfoundation.org. The deadline to submit an application for a community grant from the Felix E. Martin, Jr. Foundation is Tuesday March 1, 2011. The Foundation will be offering a public information session to answers applicants’ questions and provide guidance for the application process. This session will be held on Wednesday, January 12, from 4:00-5:00 in the Community Room of the Central City branch of the Muhlenberg County Public Library.

A total of $450,000 is available for awards in this open grants application period to achieve Mr. Martin’s vision of serving the educational, civic and cultural needs of the Muhlenberg County.

Grants are made to not-for-profit organizations for the benefit of the residents of Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. Applicants must be either: 1) recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)3 charitable organization; 2) a church; 3) a school; or 4) a unit of government serving Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. Grants of any amount up to $50,000 will be considered. Any applications requesting more than $50,000 will not be considered for a Community Grant award.

Grant applications must be received or postmarked by no later than Tuesday, March 1, 2011. Incomplete or late applications will not be accepted. The Foundation will evaluate all applications, select those that will receive an award and announce grant recipients in June. All applications must directly serve and benefit Muhlenberg County.

Applications can be downloaded in a PDF format from the “Applying for a Grant” page on the Foundation’s website, www.felixmartinfoundation.org/grantsApplication.aspx. Alternatively, you can call the Foundation’s Program Officer, Lindsey Ransdell, at (270) 977-9194 and an application will be sent to you by U. S. Mail.
